

Politics and Portraits: Women in the Seventies and the Eighties

Photographs by Ellen Shub

Women's Pentagon action, November, 1981

---

Ellen Shub is a free-lance photographer based in Boston. Her work on peace and social justice issues, particularly focusing on the role of women, has been widely published in national magazines, newspapers, and textbooks. Shub is currently working on a book about the American peace movement in the 1970's and 1980's.

Memorial service for nine black murdered women, Boston, April 1, 1979

Direct action at the Seabrook, New Hampshire, nuclear power plant, 1979

Women's encampment, Seneca Army Depot, August, 1983

Hibakusha—Hiroshima and Nagasaki bombing survivors—at disarmament rally, New York City, June 12, 1982

"Estella," trade unionist from El Salvador, testifying in Cambridge, Massachusetts, April, 1983

Women's Pentagon action, 1980

Pledge of resistance protest demonstration, Boston Common, June, 1986

Maggie Wade attending the Ribbon Project demonstration at the Pentagon, August 4, 1985

Hortensia Allende, Cambridge, December, 1985

Kate Millett, Cambridge, April, 1978

Roberta Blackgoat, Big Mountain survival camp, April, 1986

Margaret Mead, Boston, 1977

Rosa Parks, Boston, October, 1983

Maria del Socorro de Aguilar, convicted sanctuary trial defendant, Tucson, Arizona, May 1, 1986